The Hertfordshire Sports Village is operated by Polyfield Property, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the University of Hertfordshire. The information you have provided will be used to create and maintain membership records in both paper and computer form. Polyfield Property has made a Notification under the Data Protection Act (DPA)1998, and these records are processed in accordance with this notification. From time to time data from them may be used to bring to your attention details of other University services that may be of interest to Sports Village members. Data provided on the health questionnaire is, under the terms of the DPA, "sensitive personal data." In signing this form, you are deemed to be consenting to the processing of both sensitive and non-sensitive data about you, as described under the Polyfield Property data protection Notification.
